

Nesrin started her roughly twenty-year long career in the logistics sector, at the Customer Services Department of DHL Express. Later, she moved on to Human Resources and experienced the whole spectrum of the HR business.

She was the Assistant Manager of Education and Development at Metro Cash & Carry in the retail sector; later she was the Human Resources Manager for five years at Hayat Varlık.-Lehman Brothers Asset Management in the finance sector. She participated in the founding of multiple corporate academies; and she was instrumental in the reception of prestigious awards such as Great Place to Work, Brandon Hall Excellence Award, Association for Talent Development (ATD) BEST in association with her team.

She is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Psychology at Haliç University to enhance the academic side of her work and research. She completed the "Trainer's Training" program in France, and the "Training Design" program in Germany. She holds a Mentoring Certificate from FranklinCovey, and a Professional Coaching Certificate from Adler Central Europe.

Contact: info@ageexecutive.com