

Mr.Evren Erginay is an executive business owner in the aerospace, aviation and defense business industry and a regional representative of JANUS Aerospace for Turkey, Middle East-Africa, Russia and the CIS region.

Evren has twenty years of experience in global commercial business, an expert in sales and marketing, and leadership responsibilities from key account management, product management, senior sales and marketing management, regional senior director, advisor to the chairman-CEO, and executive committee member.

He has diversified senior executive expertise and skills with a proven successful track record in the defense, aerospace, aviation, healthcare, oil & gas industries and worked in large global conglomerates such as GE, Siemens, Philips, Aksoy Holding (a JV with Shell), RWE and Hilton Worldwide. Evren is a passionate leader and his core strengths are sales and marketing management, managing high performance teams.

Evren's academic background includes a BSc. Degree in Physics from the Dean of Science, University of Istanbul, and a MSc. Degree with distinction (Honors) in Biomedical Engineering from the University of London, St Bart's & The Royal London School of Medicine & Dentistry.

He has attended many executive leadership and advanced sales & marketing management courses while at GE, including Lean Six Sigma, as well as with Philips and Siemens during his career. His outstanding achievements are numerous; marketing and sales manager of the year awards for EMEA, President's Club's Recognitions-EMEA, GE Extraordinary Leadership Achievement Recognition and Trip Award to 2008 Summer Olympic Games in Peking China.